

The University of New Mexico

UNM School of Law Study-Abroad Foreign Language Report

Applicant Responses

Student Name _____
Language Evaluated _____
Total Years of Language Study _____

Please attach a list of all current or completed language courses by title and number, dates of study, grades received, and name and location of university or language institute.

Dept. of Foreign Languages & Literature or Spanish & Portuguese Checklist Oral Comprehension

None
Limited to slow, uncomplicated sentences
Understands simple conversation
Understands sophisticated discussion of academic topics

Speaking Ability

None
Can only frame structurally simple and short sentences
Basic grammatical structure, limited vocabulary
Uses structural patterns, but not with consistent accuracy. Adequate to handle conversational topics
Control over structural patterns; wide range of conversational situations

Reading Ability

None
Limited to simple vocabulary and sentence structure
Understands conventional topics and non-technical topics
Understands material containing idioms and specialized terminology

Writing Ability

None
Simple sentences on conventional topics
Academic topics with few errors in structure or spelling
Idiomatic ease of expression and feeling for the style of the language

General Opinion of the Applicant's Ability in the Foreign Language

Should have no difficulty attending the host university
Should be able to manage adequately after short period of adjustment abroad
Should be able to manage after some additional form of language training
Will require considerable training before attaining competence

Do you recommend this student for study abroad?

Additional comments may be attached. Thank you for completing this report.

Signed _____ Date _____

Position/Title _____

Department _____

Submit to: Daniel Ortega, Program Director
UNM School of Law
MSC11 6070
Phone: 505-277-5723 – FAX: 505-277-4165