

Rebekah is an attorney with Peifer, Hanson, Mullins & Baker, P.A., where she litigates complex cases ranging from plaintiffs' wrongful death matters and employment cases to state and federal criminal appeals. She has argued and briefed appeals before the Tenth Circuit, the New Mexico Supreme Court, and the New Mexico Court of Appeals. Rebekah is a member of the Board of Trustees of Planned Parenthood of the Rocky Mountains, an essential health care provider and protector of accessible and affordable sexual health care and education throughout New Mexico, Colorado, Southern Nevada, and Wyoming. Rebekah is a proud 2014 graduate of UNMSOL, where she served on the New Mexico Law Review and received the Clinical Honors Award for work with the Business and Tax Clinic. Following graduation, she clerked for the New Mexico Supreme Court. Rebekah remains an active volunteer with UNMSOL, including serving as an adjunct faculty member for the Lab course.
